

BULLETIN 2

The 7th International Workshop on Charm Physics (CHARM 2015) will be held on campus of Wayne State University in Detroit, Michigan on May 18-22, 2015. Workshop's website is <http://charm2015.wayne.edu/>. The primary goal of the seventh workshop in the CHARM series is to discuss contemporary and future aspects of charm physics. Topics to be covered at this conference include spectroscopy, heavy flavors in media, production and decays of charmed mesons and baryons, physics of charmonium states, D-mixing and CP-violation, advances in theoretical tools, future experimental facilities, and other related topics. More details on the past workshops in this series are available at our web page: <http://charm2015.wayne.edu/>

Registration

Conference registration is available at <http://charm2015.wayne.edu/registration.php> until 15 May 2015. On-site registration will be available at McGregor Memorial Hall (site of the conference) on Monday, May 18 starting at 8 am.

Scientific Program

The program will consist of plenary and parallel talks covering recent theoretical and experimental advances in the field. Full conference program can be obtained from <https://indico.fnal.gov/conferenceTimeTable.py?confId=8909#all.detailed>.

Accommodations

Participants of CHARM 2015 have a wide variety of options for accommodations. Out of the three main recommended options (on-campus WSU Yousif B. Ghafari Hall, Inn on Ferry Street, and the Hotel St. Regis), only Hotel St. Regis is still available. Note that the on-campus option had to be pre-paid by May 1st. If you indicated that you would like to stay on-campus during the conference, but have not completed your registration (i.e. paid your registration fee and accommodations), this option is no longer available. Please contact the organizers for other options. Please also see <http://charm2015.wayne.edu/hotels.php>.

Travel

Wayne State University is located in the cultural center of Detroit (MI). There are direct flights to Detroit Metro Airport (DTW) from all major American and Canadian cities, as well as from several European and Asian cities. The airport is located about 20 miles from the University. We recommend taking a taxi from the airport to WSU/local hotels or renting a car. WSU is easily accessible from all major freeways that pass through Detroit. Please see <http://charm2015.wayne.edu/travel.php>. We recommend renting a car you plan to move around during the workshop or travel before or after the meeting.

Social Events

Reception:

The opening reception will be held at the Wayne State University McGregor Memorial Conference Center on Monday, May 18, 2015 at 6:00 pm with cocktails and appetizers.

Excursion:

The conference excursion will be a private tour at the Detroit Institute of Arts (DIA) museum on Wednesday, May 20. Please note that DIA is currently hosting an exhibition "Diego Rivera and Frida Kahlo in Detroit." Please contact the organizers if you would like our assistance in getting tickets to this exhibition.

Banquet:

The conference banquet will take place on the evening of Thursday, May 21st at the Detroit Historical Museum. Menu will include locally-themed dishes.

For more information about social events, please see <http://charm2015.wayne.edu/social-events.php>.

Proceedings

We plan to publish online proceedings, details will be provided later.
